

The Stars with deep amaze

from 'Ode, on the morning of Christ's Nativity'

Words: John Milton

Crispin Lewis

S
The stars with deep a-maze stand fixed in stead-fast gaze, Bend-ing one

A
The stars with deep a-maze stand fixed in stead-fast gaze, Bend-ing one

T
The stars with deep a-maze stand fixed in stead-fast gaze, Bend-ing one

B
The stars with deep a-maze stand fixed in stead-fast gaze, Bend-ing one

6
way their pre-cious in-flu-ence; and will not take their flight for all the way their pre-cious in-flu-ence; and will not take their flight for all the way their pre-cious in-flu-ence; and will not take their flight for all the way their pre-cious in-flu-ence; and will not take their flight for all the mor - ning light, or Lu - ci - fer that of - ten warned them thence.

mor - ning light, or Lu - ci - fer that of - ten warned them thence.

mor - ning light, or Lu - ci - fer that of - ten warned them thence.

mor - ning light, or Lu - ci - fer that of - ten warned them thence.

But in their glimm'-ring orbs did glow un - til their

But in their glimm'-ring orbs did glow un - til their

But in their glimm'-ring orbs did glow un - til their

But in their glimm'-ring orbs did glow un - til their

Lord him - self be - spake_____ and let them go

Lord him - self be - spake_____ and let them go

Lord him - self be - spake_____ and let them go

Lord him - self be - spake_____ and let them go